MADISON 56ers

WHY 56ers?

- We offer the unique opportunity for year round training, including winter sessions at our indoor training facility.
- We pride ourselves on our club mentality, and players will be exposed to a variety of coaches and players within their age group.
- Our atmosphere of professionalism results in efficient and focused sessions improving both technical and tactical ability.
- Our talented staff comes from a variety of impressive backgrounds and each displays a love for the game and coaching.
- We place an emphasis on fostering a positive club community, resulting in strong friendships and relationships between teammates and club members.

HISTORY & MISSION

Madison 56ers SC is the premier soccer club in Southwest Wisconsin, with over 60 years of experience training the area's top athletes. Our achievements include over 26 youth state titles and a national championship. It is our continuing mission to offer an elite soccer experience to all players in our club.

Our knowledgeable and dedicated coaches work as a team to ensure our players grow as players and as people. In addition to team success, we make it a priority to help every individual achieve his or her goal.
